REPORTED FOR THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

Senata, Saturday, December 10. The Senate was not in session.

House of Representatives.

The House of Representatives assembled at noon. As soon as the clerk called the House to order, Mr. Hickman of Tennessee claimed that his resolution took precedence of all other questions before the House. He desired the question to be submitted to the House if the Clerk declined to decide the point of order. The Clerk stated his reasons for ruling the gentleman's resolution out of order, and why it was not inserted in the journal. Mr. Houston of Alabama contended the gentleman had not offered his resolution, but simply had the same read from the desk for the information of the House. He, therefore, held that it was not in order, and had no right to go upon the journal. There was also a previous question before the House, and this had to be disposed of before his resolution could be entertained.

Mr. Hickman insisted on his resolution being in order, and desired his point to be put to the House. Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania claimed that the resolution was in order, because Mr. H. had the floor, and when the resolution was offered, Mr. Stanton, who was entitled to the floor, did not object to its consideration. Mr. Houst in claimed that Mr. Stanton did not hold the floor after any other business had been done than balloting for Speaker.

Mr. Stanton, of Ohio, explained, and contended that the gentleman's resolution was on his people, immediate and determined re not in order, unless he surrendered the floor; sistance in the event of the election of a rebut to settle the question, would yield to Mr. Hickman.

Mr. Washburne, of Me., contended that if the gentleman of Ohio yielded to the gentleman from Pennsylvania, the resolution would be in order, because it related directly Mr. Stanton, of Ohio, took the floor, but to the election of Speaker, which was the question before the House.

Mr. Reagan of Texas thought that the obcordingly at 3) o'clock, the House adjourned. ject of the gentleman in moving the plurality rule was that he might in an indirect way vote for a black republican Speaker. Mr. Hickman said that he was not afraid to avow that he intended to vote for a Republican Speaker. Mr. Reagan had no doubt he would, and others would in the end; but that did not render such a resolution right, or in accordance with parliamentary law.

Mr. Hickman preferred the election of sound Democrat, by that he meant a Democrat opposed to the present Administration -an anti-Lecompton Democract. He had hoped to elect such an one, but now despaired. Therefore between two evils he would take the least, and vote for a Republican. Mr. Smith, of Virginia, charged that the gentleman from Pennsylvania was a Black Republican, so far as all practical purposes were concerned. He did not believe that f Mr. Bocock would rise in his place and declare that he was opposed to the administration the gentleman from Pennsylvania would vote for him. Mr. Hickman said that he would not vote for Mr. Bocock, even in the case supposed, because he knew that Mr. B., had been a supporter of the administration, and he (Mr. Hickman) did not believe in eleventh hour conversions. (Applause.) He was the judge of his own party affinities.

Mr. Smith said the "Know thyself" was a most difficient task. We must judge the tree by its fruits and the party affinities, by their political course. He appealed to the fortably warm. One of the several decided Anti-Lecompton Democrats to unite with objections to a furnace heated house, is the the democracy in opposition to the miserable, fiendish, damning doctrines of Black

Mr. Clark inquired of Mr. Smith whether adherence to the organization of the Democratic party was a test of Democracy-a question that he (Mr. S.) was qualified to answer. Mr. Smith said he had long held that a democrat might maintain his principles outside of his party organization; but no man could be a democrat and so act as to secure a defeat of his principles.

Mr. Clark said he considered it obligatory on him to represent his constituents faithfully, and they were opposed to the Administration. He was a Democrat, but was not attached to the Democratic party in this hall or elsewhere. He came here with the impression that the Republican party was the only sectional organization in this House; but he had not been in the House long before he began to suspect there were others besides that. The gentleman from South Carolina had arisen here and avowed that the South was a sectional party. He belonged to no party; he thought more of his country than of party. | Applause. | Mr. Smith. The gentleman says he be longs to no party, then, sir, he is an Ishmaelite. Applause.

Mr. Miles, of S. C., denied that he had said the South was sectional. Though his constituents had the first claim upon him, yet he looked to the interest of every other section of the country as well as that. But they had to meet sectionalism by sectionalism; and he considered in doing this he did not lose any of his nationality.

Mr. Smith, of Va., continued his remarks, aying that Mr. Clark considered the democratic party sectional, and so had gone to the Republican party as a constitutional Union-loving party.

Mr. Clark, of N. Y., denied that he had

Mr. Curry, of Alabama, said that there were occasions when nations like individuals held their breath, and awaited the result of quick passing events. The conflict in this House did not grow out of the con-flict or Speaker; not out of Helper's book; not out of John Brown's foray. They were but the incidents of a principle; the revelations of a purpose, which was deep in the Northern mind, and which found its maximum expression in Wendall Philips, and its minimum expression in the gentleman from Ohio, nominated for Speaker. This principle was that holding man in bondage is a crime; this purpose, the extinction of that have this year 32,912 white members, 4,506 bondage. THE ONLY ARTICLE UNRIVALLED IN DIEDMONT ACADEMY, CCREERER COUNTY, EUROPEAN DEMAND.—The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natu rai color permanently after the hair becomes gray supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on baid heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jun. 8, 1858.-MESSES. O. J. WOOD & Co., Gentlemen: Having heard a great deat about Prof. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind with a great many persons, had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I com menced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the succuragement of others who may be as grey as I was, but who having my prejudica without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwil-ling to give your RESTORATIVE a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the New York Wire Railing Establishment every day. My hair is now its natural color, and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking, am, yours, respectfully, HENRY JENKINS

Cor. Columbia and Carroll sts., Brooklyn. LIVINGSTON, ALA., Feb. 14, 1858.—PROF. WOOD, Dear Sir Your HAIR RESTORATIVE has done much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your HAIR RESTORATIVE, for six weeks, and I and that I have a fine head of hair new growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. think it the most valuable remedy now extent, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy. You can publish this it you think proper. Yours, &c. S. W. MIDDLETON.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.—PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your HAIR RESTORATIVE is prov-ingitself beneficial to me. The front, and also, the back part of my head almost lost its covering was in fact bald. I have used but two balt pint bottles of your RESTORATIVE, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations with out any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 484, Vine st.

The RESTORATIVE is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds \(\frac{1}{2} \) a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent, more in proportion, and retails for $3. Broadway, N. Y., (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers. oct 24-eo3m
